REGULAR MEETING OF THE JASPER COUNTY COUNCIL
October 21, 2014

FARM METAL THEFT: Mr. Price reported that he, along with Sheriff Risner, Prosecutor Christine Haskell, Commissioner Culp, and Councilman Steve Jordan, have all been concerned about the farm metal theft problem. Mr. Price has spoken with Daniel Kelley, Legislative Assistant, in regards to the law being the problem. Per phone call, Sheriff Risner was told today that they are working on improving the farm theft law from the aspect of trying to discourage or prevent the scrap yards from knowingly accepting stolen farm metal. Mr. Price stated that they will continue to follow up.

PUBLIC HEARING AND BUDGET ADOPTION OF BINDING REVIEWS:

Rensselaer Central School Corporation: Ned Speicher, Rensselaer Central School Corporation, stated that the School Board is recommending the budget as advertised and addressed at the public hearing. Mr. Bontreger asked for public comment. There was no public comment. Mr. Jordan made a motion to approve the Rensselaer Central School Corporation budget as presented. Mr. Sipkema seconded and the motion carried. Let the record show that Mr. Price abstained.

Jasper County Airport Authority: Regarding the adoption of the budget submitted by the Jasper County Airport Authority, Mr. Bontreger asked for public comment. There was no public comment. Mr. Sipkema made a motion to approve the Jasper County Airport Authority budget as presented. Mr. Price seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

Northwest Indiana Solid Waste District: Regarding the adoption of the budget submitted by the Northwest Indiana Solid Waste District, Mr. Bontreger asked for public comment. There was no public comment. Mr. Stalbaum made a motion to approve the Northwest Indiana Solid Waste District budget as presented. Mr. Price seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

Iroquois River Conservancy District: Regarding the adoption of the budget submitted by the Iroquois River Conservancy District, Mr. Bontreger asked for public comment. Hans Markland expressed concern regarding the high amount of the tax. Dan Blaney and Dale Lehe, Board Members, assured Mr. Markland that the tax has gone way down and will continue to go down next year. Mr. Sipkema made a motion to approve the Iroquois River Conservancy District budget. Mr. DeVries seconded and the motion carried unanimously.

PUBLIC COMMENT: In response to a comment from Bernard Seegers, concerned citizen, Mr. Bontreger replied that the Commissioners are working on addressing the establishment of a Violations Bureau. Once again, establishing and enforcing ordinances is the Commissioners' business.

Hans Markland, concerned citizen, stated that there is a lot of crime being committed against farmers and not much is being done. I've been hit several times and the Sheriff is minimizing the crime. Mr. Bontreger replied that Mr. Price spoke earlier in the meeting addressing the fact that they are working on getting some legislation with the assistance of the Sheriff and local Prosecutor. Once again, this is beyond Council business. Mr. Price explained that you have to prove that these scrap yards knowingly accepted stolen merchandise. It's impossible to prove when they are not following the law and documenting who and where the item came from along with obtaining photo id's.

There being no further business, Mr. Price made a motion to adjourn. Mr. Andree seconded and the motion carried unanimously.
